Chippenham & District Metal Detecting Club (CDMDC) Newsletter

On the 19th this month Terry & Mimzy were invited as guest speakers to the book opening of 'The Black Prince's Ruby' at Marlborough. The book written by the Hon. Sahrah Macpherson is a controversial Historical novel. Other guest speakers invited, Mike Stone & Melissa Barnett could not attend so the CDMDC had the floor to themselves. A few details were exchanged afterwards with the possibilities of new land to search on.

Trio arrested with 'metal detectors and artefacts' near Stonehenge

The trio fled from officers but were soon arrested on the A303 near the Countess service station. They were held in custody on suspicion of nighthawking and going equipped to steal.

Art Exhibition

CDMDC member Mark E Smith's artist talents were on display this month at the Lansdown stores Gallery in Bath

Simon Morgan had a first this month, a very Nice siliqua from the reign of Valentinian II struck between 375-383 AD. Well saved Simon
